You may wish to have candles ready to light, and a cross to place in your home worship area.

On this day, we remember Jesus's self-giving act of washing his disciples' feet.

You may wish to have a bowl of water and towel available so you can participate in that part of the service at home.

Presider Let us pray.

Almighty Father, whose dear Son, on the night before he suffered, instituted the Sacrament of his Body and Blood: Mercifully grant that we may receive it thankfully in remembrance of Jesus Christ our Lord, who in these holy mysteries gives us a pledge of eternal life; and who now lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Please be seated.

First Reading

Exodus 12:1-14

The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt: This month shall mark for you the beginning of months; it shall be the first month of the year for you. Tell the whole congregation of Israel that on the tenth of this month they are to take a lamb for each family, a lamb for each household. If a household is too small for a whole lamb, it shall join its closest neighbor in obtaining one; the lamb shall be divided in proportion to the number of people who eat of it. This is how you shall eat it: your loins girded, your sandals on your feet, and your staff in your hand; and you shall eat it hurriedly. It is the passover of the LORD. For I will pass through the land of Egypt that night, and I will strike down every firstborn in the land of Egypt, both human beings and animals; on all the gods of Egypt I will execute judgments: I am the LORD. The blood shall be a sign for you on the houses where you live: when I see the blood, I will pass over you, and no plague shall destroy you when I strike the land of Egypt. This day shall be a day of remembrance for you. You shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD; throughout your generations you shall observe it as a perpetual ordinance.

Gospeller The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to John.
People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Now before the festival of the Passover, Jesus knew that his hour had come to depart from this world and go to the Father. Having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end. The devil had already put it into the heart of Judas son of Simon Iscariot to betray him. And during supper Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God and was going to God, got up from the table, took off his outer robe, and tied a towel around himself. Then he poured water into a basin and began to wash the disciples' feet and to wipe them with the towel that was tied around him. He came to Simon Peter, who said to him, "Lord, are you going to wash my feet?" Jesus answered, "You do not know now what I am doing, but later you will understand." Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet." Jesus answered, "Unless I wash you, you have no share with me." Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only but also my hands and my head!" Jesus said to him, "One who has bathed does not need to wash, except for the feet, but is entirely clean. And you are clean, though not all of you." For he knew who was to betray him; for this reason he said, "Not all of you are clean."

After he had washed their feet, had put on his robe, and had returned to the table, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you? You call me Teacher and Lord--and you are right, for that is what I am. So if I, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have set you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you. Very truly, I tell you, servants are not greater than their master, nor are messengers greater than the one who sent them. If you know these things, you are blessed if you do them.

Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man has been glorified, and God has been glorified in him. If God has been glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself and will glorify him at once. Little children, I am with you only a little longer. You will look for me; and as I said to the Jews so now I say to you, 'Where I am going, you cannot come.' I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you also should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."

Homily

The Rev. Emily J. García

Invitation to Foot Washing

Presider Fellow servants of our Lord Jesus Christ: On the night before his death, Jesus set an example for his disciples by washing their feet, an act of humble service. He taught that strength and growth in the kingdom of God come not by power, authority, or even miracle, but by such lowly service, and he commanded them to follow his example by washing one another's feet. Therefore I invite you who share in the royal priesthood of Christ to wash each other's feet, remembering the new commandment that he gave this night, "Love one another as I have loved you. By this shall the world know that you are my disciples: That you have love for one another." If you are alone tonight, I invite you to wash your own feet, offering to yourself the tender care and attention that you would give to another, and that Jesus wants to share with you.

All are invited to wash the feet of those in their household or their own feet during the music that follows.

Music Cuando El Pobre (When the Poor Ones) .A. Olivar/M. Manzano
Solosit - Linda Kukulich, Soprano

1. *When the poor ones who have nothing share with strangers, when the thirsty water give unto us all,
when the crippled in their weakness strengthen others,*

[Refrain]

*then we know that God still goes that road with us,
then we know that God still goes that road with us.*

2. When at last all those who suffer find their comfort, when they hope though even hope seems hopelessness, when we love though hate at times seems all around us, [Refrain]

3. When our joy fills up our cup to overflowing, when our lips can speak no words other than true, when we know that love for simple things is better, [Refrain]

4. *When our homes are filled with goodness in abundance, when we learn how to peace instead of war,
when each stranger that we meet is called a neighbor, [Refrain]*

Prayers of the People

from Times & Seasons, Church of England

Leader In the power of the Spirit let us pray to the Father through Christ the savior of the world. Father, on this, the night he was betrayed, your Son Jesus Christ washed his disciples' feet. We commit ourselves to follow his example of love and service. Lord, hear us

People and humble us.

Leader On this night, he prayed for his disciples to be one. We pray for the unity of your Church. Lord, hear us

People and unite us

Leader On this night, he prayed for those who were to believe through his disciples' message. We pray for the mission of your Church. Lord, hear us

People and renew our zeal.

Leader On this night, he commanded his disciples to love, but suffered rejection himself. We pray for the rejected and unloved. Lord, hear us

People and fill us with your love.

Leader On this night, he reminded his disciples that if the world hated them it hated him first. We pray for those who are persecuted for their faith.

People Lord, hear us and give us your peace.

Leader On this night, he accepted the cup of death and looked forward to the new wine of the kingdom. We remember those who have died in the peace of Christ. Lord, hear us

People and welcome all your children into paradise.

Confession

Presider Let us confess our sins against God and our neighbor.

Please kneel in body or in spirit and join in a moment of silent contemplation.

All Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent. For the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.

Absolution

Presider Almighty God have mercy on you, forgive you all your sins through our Lord Jesus Christ, strengthen you in all goodness, and by the power of the Holy Spirit keep you in eternal life. Amen.

Please stand in body or in spirit.

The Peace

Presider The peace of the Lord be always with you.

The Liturgy of the Table

Musical Offering Lenten Walk
Redeemer Adult Choir – March 2016
Soloist - Timothy Webb, Baritone

H. Hopson

*Jesus walked this lonesome valley;
He had to walk it by himself.
Oh, nobody else could walk it for him;
He had to walk it by himself.*

*We must walk this lonesome valley;
We have to walk it by ourselves.
Oh, nobody else can walk it for us;
We have to walk it by ourselves.*

*Jesus bore a cross of sorrow
He had to bear it by himself.
Oh, nobody else could bear it for him;
He had to bear it by himself.*

*We must take our cross and follow;
Yes, we must follow by ourselves.
Oh, nobody else can follow for us;
We have to follow by ourselves.*

Great Thanksgiving (Eucharistic Prayer A)

BCP p. 361

Presider The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Presider Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Presider Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Presider It is right, and a good and joyful thing, always and everywhere to give thanks to you, Father Almighty, Creator of heaven and earth... Therefore we praise you, joining our voices with Angels and Archangels and with all the company of heaven, who for ever sing this hymn to proclaim the glory of your Name:

Please stand or kneel in body or in spirit.

Sanctus Holy, Holy, Holy Lord

Picardy, Fr. 17th c.

*Holy, holy, holy Lord
Lord God of power and might
Heaven and earth are full,
Full of your glory
Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna
Hosanna in the highest
Blessed is he who comes,
Who comes in the name of the Lord
Hosanna, hosanna, hosanna
Hosanna in the highest*

The Presider praises God for the salvation of the world through Jesus Christ our Lord and remembers Jesus' invitation at the Last Supper.

Therefore we proclaim the mystery of faith:

All say Christ has died.

Christ is risen.

Christ will come again.

The Presider then prays that the bread and wine may be for God's people the Body and Blood of Christ, and that all may receive the benefits of Christ's work and the renewal of the Holy Spirit.

All this we ask through your Son Jesus Christ: By him, and with him, and in him, in the unity of the Holy Spirit all honor and glory is yours, Almighty Father, now and for ever.

People Amen.

Presider And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us, we are bold to say:

All Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name, thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The Breaking of the Bread

Presider: Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us.

People: Therefore let us keep the feast.

Please stand in body or in spirit.

Prayer for Spiritual Communion

In union, blessed Jesus, with the faithful gathered at every altar of your Church where the Holy Eucharist is able to be celebrated, and especially with all those in this Diocese and in the Redeemer community who, for the sake of health and wholeness, cannot gather at this time, we desire to offer you praise and thanksgiving. We remember your death, Lord Christ; we proclaim your resurrection; we await your coming in glory. Since we cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, we beseech you to come spiritually into our hearts. Cleanse and strengthen us with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let us never be separated from you. May we live in you, and you in us, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

Stripping of the Altars

Psalm 22

BCP p. 610

All: They divide my garments among them; they cast lots for my clothing.

¹ My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? * and are so far from my cry and from the of my distress?

² O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you do not answer; * by night as well, but I find no rest.

³ Yet you are the Holy One, * enthroned upon the praises of Israel.

⁴ Our forefathers put their trust in you; * they trusted, and you delivered them.

⁵ They cried out to you and were delivered; * they trusted in you and were not put to shame.

⁶ But as for me, I am a worm and no man, * scorned by all and despised by the people

⁷ All who see me laugh me to scorn; * they curl their lips and wag their heads, saying,

⁸ “He trusted in the Lord; let him deliver him; * let him rescue him, if he delights in him.”

⁹ Yet you are he who took me out of the womb, * and kept me safe upon my mother’s breast

¹⁰ I have been entrusted to you ever since I was born; * you were my God when I was still in my mother’s womb.

¹¹ Be not far from me, for trouble is near, * and there is none to help.

¹² Many young bulls encircle me; * strong bulls of Bashan surround me.

¹³ They open wide their jaws at me, * like a ravening and a roaring lion.

¹⁴ I am poured out like water; all my bones are out of joint; * my heart within my breast is melting wax.

15 My mouth is dried out like a pot-herd; my tongue sticks to the roof of my mouth; * and you have laid me in the dust of the grave.

16 Packs of dogs close me in, and gangs of evildoers circle around me; * they pierce my hands and my feet; I can count all my bones.

17 They stare and gloat over me; * they divide my garments among them; they cast lots for my clothing.

18 Be not far away, O Lord; * you are my strength; hasten to help me.

19 Save me from the sword, * my life from the power of the dog.

20 Save me from the lion's mouth, * my wretched body from the horns of wild bulls.

21 I will declare your Name to my brethren; * in the midst of the congregation I will praise you.

22 Praise the Lord, you that fear him; * stand in awe of him, O offspring of Israel; all you of Jacob's line, give glory.

23 For he does not despise nor abhor the poor in their poverty; neither does he hide his face from them; * but when they cry to him he hears them.

24 My praise is of him in the great assembly; * I will perform my vows in the presence of those who worship him.

25 The poor shall eat and be satisfied, and those who seek the Lord shall praise him: * "May your heart live for ever!"

26 All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to the Lord, * and all the families of the nations shall bow before him.

27 For kingship belongs to the Lord; * he rules over the nations.

28 To him alone all who sleep in the earth bow down in worship; * all who go down to the dust fall before him.

29 My soul shall live for him; my Descendants shall serve him; * they shall be known as the Lord's for ever.

30 They shall come and make known to a people yet unborn * the saving deeds that he has done.

All: They divide my garments among them; they cast lots for my clothing.

Choral Anthem

Shall I Deny My Savior?

Redeemer Adult Choir – March 2016

By Hassler/arr. Rodgers

*Shall I deny my Savior, who gave his life for me?
Of his own will he suffered and died upon the tree,
With grief and pain and anguish, he paid my ransom fee,
With his dear blood he cleansed me from sin, and set me free*

*Shall I forget my Savior, I, who am least of all?
His holy love redeems me, and lifts me when I fall;
And like a shepherd tending his flock so carefully,
With gentle love and mercy, he watches over me.*

*No Lord, I'll not forget you, my Savior and my King,
While I have breath and reason, your thanks and praise I'll sing.
And though my gifts are feeble, I'll give what gifts I have:
I offer you, forever, my life and all my love*

When both altars are fully stripped, the lights in the sanctuary are turned out.
You are welcome to sit in the silence for as long as you desire.
Our Liturgy is suspended, not ended.

The Maundy Thursday Liturgy begins the Paschal Triduum, a liturgy that stretches over three days. For this reason, there is no dismissal on Thursday and no opening salutation on Friday. Again, on Friday, because our liturgy is suspended, not ended, there is no dismissal. And Saturday's Great Vigil begins without opening salutation as well.

Please join us at 7:30 PM the next two evenings for the remaining parts of this powerful extended liturgy.
